

Book review

Title = Alice in Wonderland

Author = Lewis Carroll

Brief summary = Alice makes new friends on her journey in a new world of which she found by falling down a rabbit hole, she meets the Queen of Hearts and her card army, of which she defeats. Then she suddenly wakes up on her sisters lap where she realises it must have all been a dream.

Favourite character = The Mad Hatter because he is very peculiar and is not like any other character I've read in any other book, which makes him unique.

Favourite moment = The iconic tea party, as that was the first place Alice met the Mad Hatter, and where her adventure truly starts to begin with her friend along for the ride.

Least favourite character = The Queen of Hearts as I feel she is an average antagonist, and is not as unique as other characters (apart from her appearance).

Recommendation = Aimed at 5 – 15yr olds as it is like a puzzle that you have to piece together.
